Some of Lakewood's youngest rock musicians are hosting a benefit for the victims of the floods that ravaged middle Tennessee in May.

Lakewood High School students Christopher and Kent Dockus returned from a trip to Nashville, Tenn. just weeks before the water rose. When they saw what happened on TV, they decided to do something to help.

The brothers and fellow members of Twin Engine Michaela Dodrill, vocals, Justice Buike, guitar, and Sam Rothacker, drums, got together with youth bands from Jam Sessions Music School and reggae artist B.E. Mann to host a fundraiser.

Fro, 3-8 p.m. Saturday, the bands will play at Around the Corner, 18616-20 Detroit Ave. in Lakewood. All proceeds from the concert will benefit The Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee.
